

INVITATION / WINDOW TALK

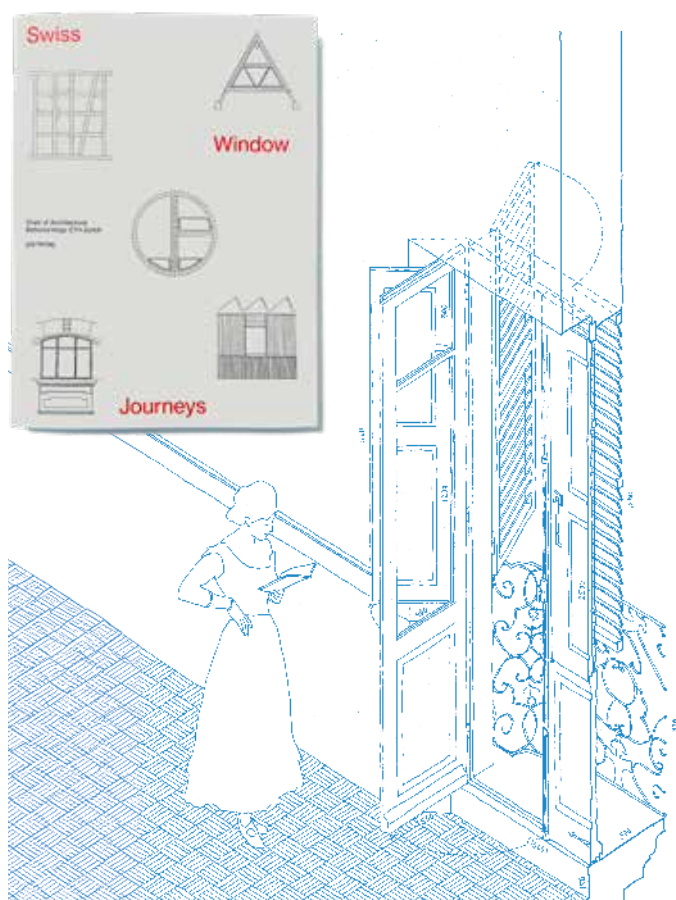

Swiss Window Journeys

Momoyo Kajijima

Kathrin Susanna Gimmel – Peter Thule Kristensen – Karsten Ifversen

VILLUM Window Collection and the Royal Danish Academy – Architecture, Design, Conservation are inviting you to the next “Window Talk” with Japanese architect Momoyo Kajijima. The talk celebrates the publication of her new book Swiss Window Journeys. Momoyo Kajijima will discuss her research on how windows have influenced human behavior and the significance of windows in future architecture with Professor Peter Thule Kristensen and architect Kathrin Susanna Gimmel. The discussion will be moderated by architecture critic Karsten Ifversen.

PROGRAM:

3:00 pm Karsten Ifversen: Welcome and introduction

3:15 pm Momoyo Kajijima: Presentation of Swiss Window Journey and the research project Swiss Window Behaviorology.

3:45 pm Panel debate: Momoyo Kajijima, Kathrin Gimmel, Peter Thule Kristensen. Based on the book Swiss Window Journeys and the description of the many unique window designs in Switzerland, which have emerged from climatic, cultural, and behavioral aspects, the panel will discuss our learnings from history and the significance of windows in future architecture.

4:30 pm VILLUM Window Collection offers a refreshment.

5:00 pm Opportunity to visit the exhibition Window Behaviorology and the permanent exhibitions at VILLUM Window Collection.

6:00 pm End of event

Momoyo Kajijima is a professor of architectural behaviorology at ETH Zurich – Federal Institute of Technology Zurich, and co-founder of Atelier Bow-Wow with Professor Yoshiharu Tsukamoto.

TIME:

Friday the 1st of November, 2024 at 3:00 pm – 6:00 pm

LOCATION:

VILLUM Window Collection, Maskinvej 4, 2860 Søborg

REGISTRATION:

To register, send an email to amb@vkr-holding.com no later than 25th of October and type “Window Talk” in the subject line. Limited spots are available.

